

Preparing for Your Appointment

Having a few details ready can help guide care:

- Your top goals for treatment
- Triggers and early warning signs
- Current medications and side effects
- Past therapies and what helped or did not
- Honest information about substance use
- A trusted support person, if desired
- Insurance information and cost questions